Nalanda Open University
FIRST AMENDMENT
TO
REGULATIONS FOR BACHELOR OF ARTS (HONOURS)
PROGRAMME OF NALANDA OPEN UNIVERSITY

1. Short Title and Commencement:

These regulations may be called "First Amendment to Regulations For Bachelor of Arts (Honours) Programme of Nalanda Open University." These amendments will come into effect from academic session commencing in June, 2008.

2. In Clause 3.2 of the existing regulations, substitute the numerical expression "70" with 80 and "30" with 20, occurring respectively in line two and line three and add a new sentence immediately after first sentence in the manner as below:

"However, there shall be no practical examination or home assignment in two compulsory papers of Language Composition and one solitary paper of General Studies. These papers shall be entirely theoretical in nature carrying 100 marks each."

3. Delete Clause 3.2 of the existing regulations and substitute it with a new Clause as below:

"3.2 Excepting two papers of Language Composition and one paper of General Studies, each of the remaining twelve papers shall carry 80 marks for theoretical portion of the term end examination and 20 marks for home assignment/project work/practical examination, as the case may be. Each of the two Language Composition papers and the solitary paper of General Studies, each paper carrying 100 marks, shall be entirely theoretical in nature and there shall be no home assignment/project work or practical examination in these papers."

4. Delete Clause 3.2.1 of the existing regulations as this will be no longer relevant in the light of new amendments being proposed hereunder.

5. Delete Clause 3.3(b) as this will be no longer relevant in the light of new amendments being proposed hereunder.

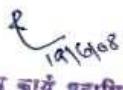

6. In Clause 3.4(i), add Geography as a new (Honours) Subject at serial (9) immediately below Home Science already listed at serial (8).

7. Delete Clauses 7.5(a), 7.5(b) and 7.5(c) as these are being replaced by new amendments being proposed hereunder in Clause 8.2.

8. Delete Clauses 8.2 and 8.2.1 of the existing regulations and substitute them with new clauses as below:

"8.2 Marks Required to Pass the Examination:

(a) Every student will have to pass each Part of the examination separately. In other words, no student shall be promoted to B.A (Honours) - (Part-II) and /or B.A (Honours) - (Part-III) unless he/she has passed B.A (Honours) - (Part-I) and/or B.A (Honours) - (Part-II) examination, as the case may be. In order to pass each Part of the examination, a candidate must secure atleast 45% of marks individually in each paper of the Honours subject he/she has opted for and 33% of marks in each paper of the subsidiary subjects. He/she also must secure 33% of marks in each paper of the language composition and General Studies. To determine 45% of pass marks in each paper of the Honours subject and 33% of pass marks in each paper of the subsidiary subjects, language composition and General Studies, the marks obtained by the candidate, both in term-end theoretical examination and practical examination/home assignment/project work, as the case may be, shall be clubbed and counted together to determine the percentage of pass marks obtained by him/her in each paper, provided that if a candidate has secured zero mark in any theoretical paper and/or practical examination/home assignment/ project work of any paper, he/she will be deemed to have failed in that paper.

8.2.1 Provision For Failed Students to Appear at Subsequent Examinations:

- (a) A student, who has not appeared at the examination or has been declared to have failed, shall be required to reappear in all the papers of that Part of the examination, including practical examination/home assignment etc., notwithstanding that he/she might have passed in one or more papers of that Part of the examination in the earlier attempt.
 - (b) A candidate, who having completed the course, fails to appear or has been declared to have failed in any Part of the examination, may be allowed to appear at subsequent examinations, being conducted for that Part of the examination, on payment of prescribed examination fee, without being required to complete the course again, but such an opportunity shall be given only in two subsequent examinations being held immediately after the examination in which the candidate has failed."
9. Delete Clauses 10.1. (i) (ii) (iii) (iv) and (v) of the existing regulations altogether as they tend to dilute meritocracy and will, hence, be not in consonance with the new amendments proposed in Clauses 8.2 and 8.2.1 above.

Nalanda Open University
FIRST AMENDMENT
TO
REGULATIONS FOR BACHELOR OF ARTS (HONOURS)
PROGRAMME OF NALANDA OPEN UNIVERSITY

1. Short Title and Commencement:

These regulations may be called "First Amendment to Regulations For Bachelor of Arts (Honours) Programme of Nalanda Open University." These amendments will come into effect from academic session commencing in June, 2008.

2. In Clause 3.2 of the existing regulations, substitute the numerical expression "70" with 80 and "30" with 20, occurring respectively in line two and line three and add a new sentence immediately after first sentence in the manner as below:

"However, there shall be no practical examination or home assignment in two compulsory papers of Language Composition and one solitary paper of General Studies. These papers shall be entirely theoretical in nature carrying 100 marks each."

3. Delete Clause 3.2 of the existing regulations and substitute it with a new Clause as below:

"3.2 Excepting two papers of Language Composition and one paper of General Studies, each of the remaining twelve papers shall carry 80 marks for theoretical portion of the term end examination and 20 marks for home assignment/project work/practical examination, as the case may be. Each of the two Language Composition papers and the solitary paper of General Studies, each paper carrying 100 marks, shall be entirely theoretical in nature and there shall be no home assignment/project work or practical examination in these papers."

4. Delete Clause 3.2.1 of the existing regulations as this will be no longer relevant in the light of new amendments being proposed hereunder.

5. Delete Clause 3.3(b) as this will be no longer relevant in the light of new amendments being proposed hereunder.

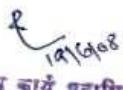

6. In Clause 3.4(i), add Geography as a new (Honours) Subject at serial (9) immediately below Home Science already listed at serial (8).

7. Delete Clauses 7.5(a), 7.5(b) and 7.5(c) as these are being replaced by new amendments being proposed hereunder in Clause 8.2.

8. Delete Clauses 8.2 and 8.2.1 of the existing regulations and substitute them with new clauses as below:

"8.2 Marks Required to Pass the Examination:

(a) Every student will have to pass each Part of the examination separately. In other words, no student shall be promoted to B.A (Honours) - (Part-II) and /or B.A (Honours) - (Part-III) unless he/she has passed B.A (Honours) - (Part-I) and/or B.A (Honours) - (Part-II) examination, as the case may be. In order to pass each Part of the examination, a candidate must secure atleast 45% of marks individually in each paper of the Honours subject he/she has opted for and 33% of marks in each paper of the subsidiary subjects. He/she also must secure 33% of marks in each paper of the language composition and General Studies. To determine 45% of pass marks in each paper of the Honours subject and 33% of pass marks in each paper of the subsidiary subjects, language composition and General Studies, the marks obtained by the candidate, both in term-end theoretical examination and practical examination/home assignment/project work, as the case may be, shall be clubbed and counted together to determine the percentage of pass marks obtained by him/her in each paper, provided that if a candidate has secured zero mark in any theoretical paper and/or practical examination/home assignment/ project work of any paper, he/she will be deemed to have failed in that paper.

8.2.1 Provision For Failed Students to Appear at Subsequent Examinations:

- (a) A student, who has not appeared at the examination or has been declared to have failed, shall be required to reappear in all the papers of that Part of the examination, including practical examination/home assignment etc., notwithstanding that he/she might have passed in one or more papers of that Part of the examination in the earlier attempt.
 - (b) A candidate, who having completed the course, fails to appear or has been declared to have failed in any Part of the examination, may be allowed to appear at subsequent examinations, being conducted for that Part of the examination, on payment of prescribed examination fee, without being required to complete the course again, but such an opportunity shall be given only in two subsequent examinations being held immediately after the examination in which the candidate has failed."
9. Delete Clauses 10.1. (i) (ii) (iii) (iv) and (v) of the existing regulations altogether as they tend to dilute meritocracy and will, hence, be not in consonance with the new amendments proposed in Clauses 8.2 and 8.2.1 above.

Nalanda Open University
FIRST AMENDMENT
TO
REGULATIONS FOR BACHELOR OF ARTS (HONOURS)
PROGRAMME OF NALANDA OPEN UNIVERSITY

1. Short Title and Commencement:

These regulations may be called "First Amendment to Regulations For Bachelor of Arts (Honours) Programme of Nalanda Open University." These amendments will come into effect from academic session commencing in June, 2008.

2. In Clause 3.2 of the existing regulations, substitute the numerical expression "70" with 80 and "30" with 20, occurring respectively in line two and line three and add a new sentence immediately after first sentence in the manner as below:

"However, there shall be no practical examination or home assignment in two compulsory papers of Language Composition and one solitary paper of General Studies. These papers shall be entirely theoretical in nature carrying 100 marks each."

3. Delete Clause 3.2 of the existing regulations and substitute it with a new Clause as below:

"3.2 Excepting two papers of Language Composition and one paper of General Studies, each of the remaining twelve papers shall carry 80 marks for theoretical portion of the term end examination and 20 marks for home assignment/project work/practical examination, as the case may be. Each of the two Language Composition papers and the solitary paper of General Studies, each paper carrying 100 marks, shall be entirely theoretical in nature and there shall be no home assignment/project work or practical examination in these papers."

4. Delete Clause 3.2.1 of the existing regulations as this will be no longer relevant in the light of new amendments being proposed hereunder.

5. Delete Clause 3.3(b) as this will be no longer relevant in the light of new amendments being proposed hereunder.

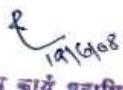

6. In Clause 3.4(i), add Geography as a new (Honours) Subject at serial (9) immediately below Home Science already listed at serial (8).

7. Delete Clauses 7.5(a), 7.5(b) and 7.5(c) as these are being replaced by new amendments being proposed hereunder in Clause 8.2.

8. Delete Clauses 8.2 and 8.2.1 of the existing regulations and substitute them with new clauses as below:

"8.2 Marks Required to Pass the Examination:

(a) Every student will have to pass each Part of the examination separately. In other words, no student shall be promoted to B.A (Honours) - (Part-II) and /or B.A (Honours) - (Part-III) unless he/she has passed B.A (Honours) - (Part-I) and/or B.A (Honours) - (Part-II) examination, as the case may be. In order to pass each Part of the examination, a candidate must secure atleast 45% of marks individually in each paper of the Honours subject he/she has opted for and 33% of marks in each paper of the subsidiary subjects. He/she also must secure 33% of marks in each paper of the language composition and General Studies. To determine 45% of pass marks in each paper of the Honours subject and 33% of pass marks in each paper of the subsidiary subjects, language composition and General Studies, the marks obtained by the candidate, both in term-end theoretical examination and practical examination/home assignment/project work, as the case may be, shall be clubbed and counted together to determine the percentage of pass marks obtained by him/her in each paper, provided that if a candidate has secured zero mark in any theoretical paper and/or practical examination/home assignment/ project work of any paper, he/she will be deemed to have failed in that paper.

राज्यपाल के विशेष कार्य विधिकारी (व्यापक)

8.2.1 Provision For Failed Students to Appear at Subsequent Examinations:

- (a) A student, who has not appeared at the examination or has been declared to have failed, shall be required to reappear in all the papers of that Part of the examination, including practical examination/home assignment etc., notwithstanding that he/she might have passed in one or more papers of that Part of the examination in the earlier attempt.
 - (b) A candidate, who having completed the course, fails to appear or has been declared to have failed in any Part of the examination, may be allowed to appear at subsequent examinations, being conducted for that Part of the examination, on payment of prescribed examination fee, without being required to complete the course again, but such an opportunity shall be given only in two subsequent examinations being held immediately after the examination in which the candidate has failed."
9. Delete Clauses 10.1. (i) (ii) (iii) (iv) and (v) of the existing regulations altogether as they tend to dilute meritocracy and will, hence, be not in consonance with the new amendments proposed in Clauses 8.2 and 8.2.1 above.

Nalanda Open University
FIRST AMENDMENT
TO
REGULATIONS FOR BACHELOR OF ARTS (HONOURS)
PROGRAMME OF NALANDA OPEN UNIVERSITY

1. Short Title and Commencement:

These regulations may be called "First Amendment to Regulations For Bachelor of Arts (Honours) Programme of Nalanda Open University." These amendments will come into effect from academic session commencing in June, 2008.

2. In Clause 3.2 of the existing regulations, substitute the numerical expression "70" with 80 and "30" with 20, occurring respectively in line two and line three and add a new sentence immediately after first sentence in the manner as below:

"However, there shall be no practical examination or home assignment in two compulsory papers of Language Composition and one solitary paper of General Studies. These papers shall be entirely theoretical in nature carrying 100 marks each."

3. Delete Clause 3.2 of the existing regulations and substitute it with a new Clause as below:

"3.2 Excepting two papers of Language Composition and one paper of General Studies, each of the remaining twelve papers shall carry 80 marks for theoretical portion of the term end examination and 20 marks for home assignment/project work/practical examination, as the case may be. Each of the two Language Composition papers and the solitary paper of General Studies, each paper carrying 100 marks, shall be entirely theoretical in nature and there shall be no home assignment/project work or practical examination in these papers."

4. Delete Clause 3.2.1 of the existing regulations as this will be no longer relevant in the light of new amendments being proposed hereunder.

5. Delete Clause 3.3(b) as this will be no longer relevant in the light of new amendments being proposed hereunder.

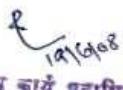

6. In Clause 3.4(i), add Geography as a new (Honours) Subject at serial (9) immediately below Home Science already listed at serial (8).

7. Delete Clauses 7.5(a), 7.5(b) and 7.5(c) as these are being replaced by new amendments being proposed hereunder in Clause 8.2.

8. Delete Clauses 8.2 and 8.2.1 of the existing regulations and substitute them with new clauses as below:

"8.2 Marks Required to Pass the Examination:

(a) Every student will have to pass each Part of the examination separately. In other words, no student shall be promoted to B.A (Honours) - (Part-II) and /or B.A (Honours) - (Part-III) unless he/she has passed B.A (Honours) - (Part-I) and/or B.A (Honours) - (Part-II) examination, as the case may be. In order to pass each Part of the examination, a candidate must secure atleast 45% of marks individually in each paper of the Honours subject he/she has opted for and 33% of marks in each paper of the subsidiary subjects. He/she also must secure 33% of marks in each paper of the language composition and General Studies. To determine 45% of pass marks in each paper of the Honours subject and 33% of pass marks in each paper of the subsidiary subjects, language composition and General Studies, the marks obtained by the candidate, both in term-end theoretical examination and practical examination/home assignment/project work, as the case may be, shall be clubbed and counted together to determine the percentage of pass marks obtained by him/her in each paper, provided that if a candidate has secured zero mark in any theoretical paper and/or practical examination/home assignment/ project work of any paper, he/she will be deemed to have failed in that paper.

8.2.1 Provision For Failed Students to Appear at Subsequent Examinations:

- (a) A student, who has not appeared at the examination or has been declared to have failed, shall be required to reappear in all the papers of that Part of the examination, including practical examination/home assignment etc., notwithstanding that he/she might have passed in one or more papers of that Part of the examination in the earlier attempt.
 - (b) A candidate, who having completed the course, fails to appear or has been declared to have failed in any Part of the examination, may be allowed to appear at subsequent examinations, being conducted for that Part of the examination, on payment of prescribed examination fee, without being required to complete the course again, but such an opportunity shall be given only in two subsequent examinations being held immediately after the examination in which the candidate has failed."
9. Delete Clauses 10.1. (i) (ii) (iii) (iv) and (v) of the existing regulations altogether as they tend to dilute meritocracy and will, hence, be not in consonance with the new amendments proposed in Clauses 8.2 and 8.2.1 above.
